❖ Cancellation policy

By signing up to this program, applicants understand that this training is offered to a limited number of participants only for free. Should they be selected, each participant undertakes to send her/his traveling tickets at least 2 weeks in advance. The travel until Trieste is at your own charge. Registration will not be confirmed without this supporting document. Moreover, trainees pledge themselves to attend the whole training. Certificates will be delivered to the educators having the full two days and half only.

Last minute cancellation without valid reason would also prevent participants from attending any other training courses by the organizers.
